

LITTLE STATES IN REVOLT ON LEAGUE'S WAR STAND

Delegates Resent Whittling Down
of Demands Made by Poland;
Arms Attitude Scored

GENEVA, Sept. 8. (AP)—The revolt of the little states against what is characterized as the great power domination of the League of Nations was renewed in the Assembly meeting today when it was learned that the Polish plan to outlaw war had been whittled down overnight into so-called platonic idealism.

Because of the opposition of the foreign ministers of some of the big powers, Poland reluctantly trimmed down its original elaborate nonaggression pact until it became a mere skeleton of two articles. One of these forbids all war as a means of solving international disputes, the other stipulates that all international quarrels must be settled by pacific means.

WAR OVER WAR

The jurists of the great powers sat throughout the night and insisted that the word "war" should be modified into the phrase "war of aggression." This disheartened the Polish representatives, who telegraphed to Warsaw for fresh instructions.

G. J. Hambro, President of the Norwegian Chamber of Deputies, told the powers, the League and the world leaders on the griddle today. He declared that his "whole Cabinet was disappointed in the failure of the League of Nations to agree on disarmament principles."

The statement of a few great powers in the League, he continued, offered a mere formality. He said that the nations are waiting and wondering what the leading nations are going to do about disarmament. One difficulty, he remarked, is "that there are too many diplomats at the League meeting and they are not in favor of publicity."

Mr. Hambro urged that the meeting of the disarmament preparatory commission, of which the United States is a member, be held in November as scheduled, and not be postponed.

"HOG GOOD JOBS"

The speaker criticized the big powers for what he said is an apparent desire to divide the good jobs of the League secretariat.

In a scathing attack, Hambro charged that an international council, which really is running things and which is confined to the big powers, and grows up within the League Council. He said that he doubted whether the League leaders realized the force of the resentment which this development in the League is engendering throughout the world.

Emphasizing the great interest "on the other side of the ocean," in the move to outlaw war, Hambro made an appeal that the League be run in such a way that no great power may long remain outside.

FLYING TENOR COMES WEST

Mario Chamlee Releases His Opera Role Over Utah and Nevada

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 8. (AP)—Mario Chamlee, the "flying tenor" of the Metropolitan Opera Company, arrived here from Chicago by airplane today to keep engagements here and in Los Angeles.

"I rehearsed 'Romeo and Juliet' over the States of Utah and Nevada with great success," Chamlee declared. He said he intends to purchase a plane for use this winter between his Wilton (Cal.) home and the Metropolitan Opera in New York.

berlin, British Foreign Secretary, commenting on a plan for organizing financial assistance for a nation, victim of aggression, declared the project possessed great value, but would deter aggression, and that the nations would not see a tangible reduction of armaments as a result of the scheme.

British Foreign Secretary declared the project was drawn up by the League's financial committee, and now goes before the Assembly, which provides that a nation contract loans on the general security of its revenues, but with the assistance of an international guarantee to be contained in a convention which would be open to all nations. No states would benefit from this arrangement unless they signed the convention.

The speaker criticized the big powers for what he said is an apparent desire to divide the good jobs of the League secretariat.

CITY MAY LAND LEGION MEETING

Boys will stop at Boston to take on New England veterans.

Tomorrow will sail the Celtic of the International Mercantile Marine, the United States liner President Harding and the Saville of the French Line. Two Canadian vessels called today and two other ships left this port yesterday, so by Sunday the Legion will be Paris-bound with a fleet of fourteen ships. All are scheduled to arrive before the 10th inst., the date set for the opening of the convention.

TORPEDO BOATS AND PLANES TO MEET LEGION

PARIS, Sept. 8. (Exclusive)—A squadron of French torpedo boats and hydroplanes will cruise out to meet the flagship of the American Legion, the Leviathan, just before it arrives at Cherbourg on the 10th inst., the Navy Department announced today.

The ships and airplanes will escort the liner to port, where officials will welcome Gen. Pershing, Commander Howard P. Savage, and other Legionnaires. Then the Americans will be taken to the Hotel de Ville where a short ceremony will be held before their departure on special boat trains.

While Gen. Couraud, military governor of Paris, was giving a luncheon for James F. Barton, national adjutant of the Legion, Bowman Elder, chairman of the Paris convention committee and a score of other Legion officials this noon, where final plans were discussed, M. Ernest Cambre, socialist mayor of Paris, a suburb of Paris, was giving orders to block any Legion celebration in his domain.

Refusing to abide by the request of the press to all the towns in the district to fly French and American flags on the 10th inst., Mayor de Cambre today ordered all colors at half mast as a sign of mourning for Sacco and Vanzetti, the radicals executed in Massachusetts recently.

LIGHTS TO FLASH ALL NIGHT FOR SIR JOHN CARLING

CROYDON (Eng.) Sept. 8. (AP)—Colored searchlights will flash all night in Croydon field and all landing lights are burning in hope of catching the Canadian plane should it reach its destination, although the viability is miserable, with low-hanging clouds sweeping in. Only professional flyers, air ministry officers and reporters are keeping vigil on the night-swept field in the hope that the Carling may be seen.

Optimism faded tonight even among armchair fliers who had expected to see the plane landing in the morning, a forced landing even if it managed to reach Ireland or England. There was much speculation among the crowd as to whether the light from the searchlights would be enough to guide the plane through such a night.

Newspaper comment was anything but comforting. The papers recovered the plane's position in the night, but the plane was already lost in the Atlantic and Pacific flights.

A Ministry official said tonight that in his opinion there no longer is any hope that the plane would reach Hong Kong. If it accomplished the ocean crossing he thought it would descend immediately on reaching land.

WINSTON FLYERS TO MAKE SEARCH FOR OLD GLORY

ST. JOHNS (N. F.) Sept. 8. (AP)—Phil Wood and "Duke" Schiller, Windsor-to-Windward fliers who planned to remain in this city until tomorrow, changed their plans tonight and returned to Harbor Grace. They announced they intended to embark on a search for the Old Glory plane and its occupants.

Persons who talked with the fliers tonight were told that the plane was lost and Schiller will attempt the trans-Atlantic flight, looking for signs of the Old Glory on the way. Wood and Schiller admit that the backers of the flight, as well as all who spoke to them here, urge them to abandon the flight, but they are determined to go through with it.

The fliers, who maintained until tonight that the London-to-London plane, Sir John Carling, would cross the Atlantic safely, reluctantly agreed to abandon the flight, but they are determined to go through with it.

They said it will be useless to conduct a search for the Carling, though they have been known of the plane's position.

"AMERICAN GIRL" TO HOP FOR FLORIDA TODAY

DETROIT, Sept. 8. (AP)—The Stinson-Detroler airplane, American Girl, with Miss Ruth Elder and George Baldwin aboard, left Detroit today for Tampa, Fla.

The 110-mile flight is the first of three hops prior to their planned departure from Roosevelt Field, N. Y., on a trans-Atlantic journey to Paris.

CLOUDS OVER ENGLAND PREVENT LANDING AT CROYDON FIELD

CROYDON (Eng.) Sept. 8. (AP)—Two planes of the Imperial Airways flying from Paris, and one plane of the Dutch Royal Air Service, from Amsterdam, were unable to reach Croydon airfield tonight because of low-lying clouds hanging over the hills surrounding the field.

On arrival here the passengers described flying conditions as "wretched" because of rain, clouds and wind. They expressed doubt that the Canadian plane, Sir John Carling, would be able to find the Croydon field owing to the low visibility.

TRIAL DELAY FOR WATSON TO BE ASKED

Contra Costa Prosecutor
Will Seek Continuance in Northern Explosives Case

MARTINEZ, Sept. 8. (Exclusive)—Dist. Atty. Tinning stated tonight that he will ask Superior Judge Alvarado on Monday for a continuance of the trial of Maj. C. Percy Watson of Inyo county on an indictment charging in three separate counts, the transportation of explosives over highways of Contra Costa county.

It is believed that the continuance will be granted as defense counsel informed the District Attorney they will make no objection. Watson had been scheduled for trial the 13th inst.

The continuance, it is assumed, in the absence of a definite announcement of its purpose, is at least partly due to the fact that Watson is scheduled to appear again the 12th inst. in Oakland for the completion of a preliminary hearing in Alameda county for storing explosives in a public parking station, endangering the lives of others.

The Contra Costa county charges of a large quantity of dynamite, fulminate and mercury in powder plants near here. According to the contention of the Los Angeles Board of Water and Commissioners of the asserted Watson purchase was discovered unexploded in No Name Canyon, Owens Valley, following an explosion at the Aquequet alphon there.

Hunt Promotes River Inspection

PHOENIX, Sept. 8. (AP)—Gov. Hunt of Arizona today sent invitations to the governors of the four Colorado River upper-basin States—Colorado, Wyoming, Utah and New Mexico, to send engineering representatives to Arizona to inspect the Salt River and Gila River projects and the Colorado River project at Yuma.

BANDIT RETURNS TO GET CASH

MADISON (Wis.) Sept. 8. (Exclusive)—While police were still combing the surrounding country for this morning for the youth who tried to hold up the South Side State Bank here Wednesday afternoon, he returned to the bank today just as an official opened the door, held him up and escaped with $2200.

Wednesday afternoon the bandit appeared at the bank with a gun, pointed a gun at A. C. Holcher, cashier, and Ray Tholrang, assistant cashier. Tholrang succeeded in reaching the burglar alarm and the man fled.

Writing in the issue of Collier's Weekly for the 17th inst., Mills asserted that he was induced into the service on the assurance that he was hounded by government and "bootleggers' spies, harassed by politicians and so frequently warned from Washington to "go easy" with the politicians that he soon found himself hamstrung and finally was driven out of office by politics.

STUNT FLIGHT BAN PROPOSED

citizens generally in this country are opposed to the stunt flying. Friends and relatives of William S. Brock and Edward F. Schlee, who are in an effort to raise money for the government to stop them before they attempt a long flight to London.

The note of comment everywhere was that not only are too many lives being lost but that a serious blow is being dealt to aviation itself.

NEED NEW APPARATUS

Berlin newspapers voiced the belief that "the time has come to abandon the old kind of ocean flights attempted in the last six months. Men, money and planes should be used for other development. The construction of new apparatus is imperative."

One of the most noted aviators in Italy, Deputy Eugeo Casagrande, said that a trans-Atlantic flight demonstrated nothing "except the admirable courage of the flier, since similar long flights already made over land show their possibilities."

The London press declared that genuine enterprise should never be discouraged, but further encouragement should be denied to stunt flying.

COMMERCIAL DEPARTMENT CANNOT PREVENT FLIGHTS

WASHINGTON, Sept. 8. (AP)—Stunt flights such as those which have recently been pronounced in the Department of Commerce are frowned upon by aviation officials of the Commerce Department but they say there is nothing they can do to stop them under present laws.

Commenting today on the statement of Philip Payne, a passenger on the missing Old Glory, that the ship had been pronounced in the Department of Commerce, aviation officials said that the Department cannot prevent flights.

LICENSE EXPLAINED

There is quite a difference between an experimental license and a normal aviation license, they explained. The license given the Old Glory was similar to the grant of the Dole flight plane, the Brock-Schlee "round-the-world" plane and Paul Rader's Brunswick-to-Brazil ship, and are available to any manufacturer or owner of a plane built for experimental or contest purposes.

The requirements merely are that there is reasonable assurance that the plane has a sufficient fuel range and cruising speed to accomplish what it sets out to do, that it is able to carry a gross load under such conditions and is suitably equipped as to engine and other instruments.

Officials said that although they had no authority to refuse such permits, they believed little could be gained in further trans-oceanic flights.

FLYER'S OWN BUSINESS

Except for the Lindbergh flight, which they likened in importance to the first crossing of the ocean by surface craft and the Byrd craft, which they believed taught a lesson in equipment, they saw in the recent overseas ventures during the last three months, Capt. Rene Fonck and Lieut. Lawrence Curtin, United States Navy pilots of the new Sikorsky biplane, City of Paris, plan to hop to Paris within another week, weather permitting.

Completed a week ago, having made its first test flight last Saturday, the giant ship is now being rushed through extensive load, fuel consumption performance and radio tests at Mitchell Field. It is expected that within seven days should be ready to take off from the famous trans-Atlantic survey at Boosey field.

For the men who have died in the attempt, Lieut. Curtin said aviators have the deepest sympathy. Yet he is convinced—Capt. Fonck, leading French war ace and a man who shot down 128 German planes, shares his opinion—their deaths should not mean "stop" to transoceanic projects.

By air as well as on the surface the Atlantic must be conquered, he believes. Science demands it; progress in more rapid communication demands it. Only in this field, Lieut. Curtin said, eagerness must be tempered with scientific caution and a long-distance flight is a last of ship should not be ventured until most exhaustive tests have been made.

MEMPHIS (Tenn.) Sept. 8. (AP)—Congress will be appealed to by the United National Association of Post-office Clerks to enact legislation recognizing six hours of night work by postoffice clerks as equal to eight hours of day service.

Resolutions directing officials of the organization to direct their appeal attention to having Congress enact such legislation were adopted at the annual convention of the association yesterday.

Another resolution urged reclamation of salaries.

NEW YORK, Sept. 8. (AP)—Three-fourths of the 2500 Federal prohibition agents in the United States are ward heeled and sycophantic, according to Chester P. Mills, former Federal administrator of the Second Federal District.

Writing in the issue of Collier's Weekly for the 17th inst., Mills asserted that he was induced into the service on the assurance that he was hounded by government and "bootleggers' spies, harassed by politicians and so frequently warned from Washington to "go easy" with the politicians that he soon found himself hamstrung and finally was driven out of office by politics.

TWO-STORY FREEZER AROUSES PROTESTS

BURLINGAME, Sept. 8. Councilmen scanned the building code without being able to find any article therein which prohibited the structure. The ice-cream company, however, relieved the situation by voluntarily agreeing to put the freezer at some other location.

BANK SUIT THREATENS Reserve Board Challenged
Chicago District Directors Question Authority to Order Rate Cut
Questions Raised in Dispute Regarded Likely to Bring Notice of Congress
WASHINGTON, Sept. 8. (Exclusive)—New controversies involving the Federal Reserve Board loom as a result of its action in arbitrarily reducing the discount rate of the Chicago Federal Reserve Bank over the protest of its directors.
That there is a serious question as to the legal authority of the board to establish a new rate for any of the twelve Federal Reserve banks is conceded. It is admitted that a court test might result in a decision that the initial action for a change in rate must be taken by an individual bank, subject only to the approval of the board.
Besides litigation which has been invited by the unprecedented action, the controversy will give a new angle to discussions which are carried on intermittently in Congress relative to proposed enlargement or curtailment of the powers of the Federal Reserve Board.
CASE SETS PRECEDENT
Even if directors of the Chicago Federal Reserve Bank should fail to make a court issue of the matter, there will be a strong desire on the part of banking interests throughout the country to have the board's powers more clearly defined. The action in the Chicago case establishes a precedent, it being the first time in the history of the Federal Reserve system that the board has overridden the wishes of the directors of a Federal Reserve bank in this manner. While the board based its action on an opinion given by the Federal Reserve Bank of Chicago, the correctness of that opinion has always been open to question. Secretary Glas, Democratic, Virginia, who as chairman of the House Committee on Banking and Currency during the Wilson administration was one of the authors of the Federal Reserve Act, always has maintained that the board does not have power to fix rates. Other authorities take the same view.
The question hinges on the interpretation of the clause in Section 14 of the Federal Reserve Act, which provides that every Federal Reserve Bank shall have the power to "establish from time to time, subject to the review and determination and review of the directors of a Federal Reserve bank, rates and discounts to be charged by the Federal Reserve Bank for each class of paper." There is no other provision in the law giving the board itself power over rates.
TWO BANKS HELD OUT
In the present situation the understanding is that the Federal Reserve Board asserted its influence to bring several of the banks into line with the movement for the reduction in discount rates. The Chicago bank, however, is the only one which stood out against the board to the extent of forcing the latter to take action. Ten of the twelve Federal Reserve banks now have reduced their discount rate from 4 to 3 1/2 per cent. The two which still maintain a 4 per cent rate are Minneapolis and San Francisco.
Members of the board believe action will be taken voluntarily by banks of the Chicago bank has acted, due to the fact that the two institutions overlap in Wisconsin. So far as is known here, the Minneapolis bank has not thus far refused to reduce its rate.
The San Francisco bank ordinarily

Today's Problem in Salesmanship
For the 100,000 Salesmen in California and Other States Engaged in Selling
By C. E. NEWLIN, Sales Expert
QUESTION: Have you a good imagination, Mr. Salesman?
ANSWER: Yes. I know that I must be able to imagine the results that each customer will receive from my sale. I must be able to draw the picture so he can see it.
ly has been disposed to follow the lead of the New York bank and an early announcement of a reduction, therefore, is expected. In view of the protests aroused by the action in the Chicago case it is doubtful if the board will attempt to exert its authority to compel either Minneapolis or San Francisco to swing into line.
MIDWEST BANKS LEAD
There is an understanding that the Federal Reserve Board is responsible for the action of the Kansas City and St. Louis banks in leading the movement for a rate reduction in advance of the New York bank, which ordinarily starts a series of rate changes. After the reductions by the Kansas City, St. Louis and New York banks from 4 to 3 1/2 per cent came similar action by the Boston, Cleveland, Richmond, Atlanta and Dallas banks. Then followed the arbitrary Chicago rate reduction on Tuesday of this week. Announcement of the reduction of the Philadelphia bank rate was made yesterday, effective today. It is explained in the case of the Philadelphia action that the delay is due to the absence of members of the board of directors from that city.
CHICAGO BANKERS PLAN BOARD FIGHT
CHICAGO, Sept. 8.—Chicago bankers today made plans to continue their fight against centralized dictation from the Federal Reserve Board at Washington in the affairs of the Federal Reserve Bank of Chicago which was precipitated by an arbitrary order from the board to the bank to reduce the discount rate from 4 to 3 1/2 per cent.
The bankers, it was learned, are prepared to take their case before the United States Supreme Court and if they fail there steps to have the objectionable feature of the Federal Reserve Act repealed by Congress will be taken when that body convenes this fall.
The first step in the fight against the Washington board will take place a week from tomorrow when the advisory committee of the board, consisting of representatives of each of the twelve Federal Reserve Districts will meet in Washington. Frank O. Wetmore, chairman of the First National Bank of Chicago and the representative on the committee of Zone 7, the Chicago district, is prepared to "induce the committee to administer a severe 'spanking' to the members of the board."
In their anger over the action of the board, Chicago bankers today intervened in the arbitrary action on the part of the board is stopped, an end to the Federal Reserve system is in sight.
None of them care to see this happen, but they are unable to see some of the nation's most gifted bankers who live in Chicago subordinate themselves to a board far away, the members of which, they believe, do not understand the conditions in the various reserve districts. Withdrawal from the board of directors of the Federal Reserve Bank of Chicago by such men and under such circumstances would be highly probable.

OBSERVERS SEE TURN TO HOOVER
New England Reported as Favoring Secretary
New York Republican Hears Same Call in West
He Also Detects Democratic Vote for Smith
BY ROBERT B. ARMSTRONG
"Times" Staff Correspondent
WASHINGTON, Sept. 8. (Exclusive)—Visitors returning to Washington from New England are reporting a strong sentiment in favor of Secretary of Commerce Hoover as the Republican candidate in case President Coolidge will not run. Especially is this true of business men and members of the Senate and the House who have been studying conditions in the manufacturing centers of Connecticut and Massachusetts. They find that the substantial owners of industrial plants as well as the industrial workers favor Hoover over Hughes as a successor to Coolidge as the head of the Republican party. Several of the papers have had men canvassing the two States and their reports agree on these points.
One of the best informed leaders of the Republican party in New York State has returned from a trip to Honolulu and the leaders here in Washington are giving a great deal of importance to his report, made public here today. He has been long in politics and has been regarded as the best-informed political leader in Republican ranks in New York, and for that reason all the political observers, both Republican and Democratic, are studying the interview given by Lafayette E. Gleason, secretary of the Republican State committee of New York when he summarized the result of his long trip across the country.
HOOVER VERSUS SMITH
While on the Republican side Mr. Gleason finds Mr. Hoover is the choice of the party leaders providing Coolidge will not be a candidate, he ascertains, too, that on the Democratic side there is little or no sentiment for anyone but Gov. Smith, but this, he says, might be due to the activities of Tammany emissaries whose trail he crossed. He also says he finds that where it seemed certain the Republican national convention would go to San Francisco the Coolidge declaration has rather altered the situation, and other cities are now striving to get the convention.
Mr. Gleason, who always keeps close watch on the national political situation, left New York on July 14, went to Canada, crossed to Vancouver, and thence to Honolulu, returning by way of San Francisco, spending two weeks in California and journeying east by easy stages, through several of the Western States, interviewing national committeemen of five of the States, two or three governors, some Federal judges, many State chairmen and politicians generally.
The chief interest in California, Mr. Gleason says, is in obtaining the convention for San Francisco, and National Committeeman William H. Crocker is bending all his energies to that end. He has the support of the leaders of other States on the Coast.
"Up to the time that Mr. Coolidge made his statement," Mr. Gleason asserts, "it seemed probable that the convention would go there, but the statement has changed the situation somewhat. However, they are still very hopeful out there. When it seemed certain that the convention would be in the nature, more or less, of a ratification meeting there was not so much striving for the convention by other cities. Now, however, when it is apparent that candidates will be opening headquarters and that many others besides the delegates will attend, the other cities are becoming very active. Among the cities that I understand are working for the convention are Detroit, Minneapolis, St. Louis and Philadelphia.
STATES FOR HOOVER
"I'd say from what I learned, that Mr. Hoover will have the delegates from Washington, Oregon, California, Nevada, Colorado and Kansas—that is as far as my observations will allow me to go. As a matter of fact, there was little or no talk of candidates except Hoover and Daves and the general belief seemed to be that Daves was a more likely candidate than Lowden."
"What about wet and dry question?"
"Well, I'll tell you a strange thing: from the time I left Toronto on the way out until I reached Chicago on the way back I never heard the word 'prohibition' even mentioned. That convinces me no matter how we may feel about it here in New York, that the question is not agitating either the Republicans or the Democrats in those States through which I traveled."
"Yes, on the Democratic side I heard a good deal about Gov. Smith; in fact there was no mention of anything else except Smith. That may have been due to the fact that I was from New York or it may have been due to the activity of Tammany emissaries. I ran across two Tammany Congressmen who had been out there; one going as far as Honolulu. There was another Tammany man here, a member of the House, who had been to Alaska. Now, while Honolulu and Alaska have no votes in the Electoral College they each have six votes in the Democratic national convention. Altogether I met three Tammany emissaries and heard of a fourth, and I heard their activities had been pretty general throughout the West."
OPPOSED TO SMITH
"I was told that Smith could not get any of the delegates from the Pacific Slope. They haven't any candidate against him, but they are opposed to him. I was told I was in California fifteen days and I never heard McAdoo's name mentioned. As far as Smith is concerned, there does not appear to be any animosity toward him and the things we hear of here, such as the silver issue, are not mentioned. Where there was Smith sentiment my judgment is it was based on the theory that the party doesn't stand a chance unless it can carry New York State. One or two people mentioned Gov. Ritchie of Maryland.
"But California is prosperous and selling its products to advantage and I think the main thing out there is that they don't want a change. The Colorado Republicans I found solidly for Hoover and the same was true in Utah. There are some Daves people and I found some Lowden sentiment in Honolulu. In 1920 the delegation from there was instructed for Lowden."
A highway connecting North and South America, now under consideration, will give the first overland communication on the island, the only means of travel at present being small coastwise steamers.

Borah Boom in Idaho Boosted
BOISE (Idaho) Sept. 8. (P)—The Presidential boom of Senator Borah is given impetus here today in the issuing of a statement by Ray McKelg, State chairman of the progressives, urging that party ties be disregarded in the effort to "draft" the senior Idaho Senator into the Presidency.
The announcement follows adoption of a resolution by the Progressive State Central Committee which declares "the time has come when the people of the United States have a golden opportunity to draft a real statesman, Senator William E. Borah."
PEST FIND REPORTED IN WALNUT GROVES
SACRAMENTO, Sept. 8. (P)—Discovery of a codling-moth infestation in Lake county walnuts received at the Department of Agriculture is reported by T. D. Urbahn, entomologist. This is the first appearance of this pest in Northern California nut groves.
Urbahn is considerably perturbed by the discovery, as it is not known whether the moth is the same as that which attacks pears and apples, or whether it is a new strain. In the past, although pears, apples and walnuts have been grown in close proximity, the pest has attacked only the peachy fruits.

CARIBOU CUT COMMUNICATION

ANCHORAGE (Alaska) Sept. 8. (AP)—Migrating caribou, crowding through a canyon near here, have destroyed wires and tripped along the Alaska Railroad, cutting off communication along the land line to Fairbanks. Linemen making repairs were forced to work in the intervals between the appearance of stampedes. One large herd was forced into a canyon by oncoming thousands of the animals behind.

Mayer studios at Culver City in holding memorial services for the film magnate. Similar honor was paid Mr. Loew at Universal City and virtually all theaters here conducted brief memorial services at 3 o'clock in the afternoon. The West Coast theaters did not open until 1:30 o'clock and the memorial program was observed shortly thereafter.

At the M-G-M. studios directors and executives, actors and workers gathered on the studio lawn before a stand, draped in mourning, for which the services were conducted. Rabbi Edgar F. Magnin and Dr. A. H. Glanville were the speakers.

TWO THOUSAND PRAY

The services marked one of the most impressive events ever carried out in a screen studio, as 2000 prayed and the studio flag was lowered to half-mast.

Dr. Magnin, in a touching tribute, referred to the life of Marcus Loew as the greatest drama in the history of the screen industry he did so much to develop.

"The rise of Marcus Loew—his progress from a poor boy through the varied stages, from penny arcades to international leadership, fame and wealth," said Dr. Magnin, "are all great drama—but greater than it all was the man—simple, modest, sweet and tender. I knew him and I knew his many charities and good deeds; and in these things are his greatness rather than the physical evidence of these great buildings and his power in the field of his endeavor. We are grateful.

Dr. Glanville, president of the East River National Bank of New York, and business associate as well as close personal friend of the dead film leader, spoke of the man as he knew him.

"Marcus Loew was a faithful husband," he said, "a loving father and devoted son, a kind, friendly, a man who loved his God, his neighbor, and his country. The true measure of his life and his life and work, and the traditions he has left behind. In business he was the soul of honor; his word was as good as the gold coin from the government's mint.

"He was the embodiment of youth; it is hard to realize even now that Marcus Loew is dead. He embarked on a new industry—an industry of youth, with all the vigor of his soul. He exemplified the spirit of youth and of America, strenuous, forward moving, progressive. He set a standard from which motion pictures are measured today."

The service opened with music by the Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer studio orchestra, which, during the course of the service played hymns and sacred music. Dr. Magnin prefaced the address with the reading of the Twenty-third Psalm, and closed with prayer in which he was joined by the assemblage. As "Taps" was sounded the studio flag was lowered to half mast in the world.

BELLS WILL BID COOLIDGE ADIEU

Rapid City to Give President Grand Farewell Today

Summer Vacation's Over and Town Reviews Honor

State College Degree to be Conferred on Executive

RAPID CITY (S. D.) Sept. 8. (AP)—With a farewell that is planned to draw out nearly the whole of this gateway to the Black Hills, the people of Rapid City will bid good-by to President and Mrs. Coolidge tomorrow in a way that they hope will show their appreciation for bringing the summer White House here.

Whistles will blow and the fire bell will ring to tell the people the time has arrived for them to go to the high-school building where Mr. Coolidge has had his private offices.

The stores and factories have been asked to close for three-quarters of an hour so everyone can get in on the farewell.

Mayor Jenson will make a speech and the President is expected to respond briefly.

As the time comes for the departure for Washington, Rapid City folks are counting down the events of the summer and what they have meant to them. John B. Green, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce put it in words in this way:

INSPECTS MINES

Mr. Coolidge received a large number of persons today to shake hands and say good-by, but no conferences were listed for either today or tomorrow.

After leaving the executive office, he motored to the State School of Mines, which is located here, and inspected its laboratories and the experiments it is making in the interest of more efficient mining. The Black Hills are rich in minerals of many sorts and hold the largest gold mine in the world.

JAPANESE RESISTANCE CONTINUE

Protect Residents in Manchuria

Premier Incensed at Chang Tso-Lin

Said to Have Ignored Terms of Treaty

Sept. 8. (AP)—Anti-Japanese protests are continuing in Japan, official reports say. The Japanese government is expected to express its indignation at the Japanese premier's statement that it has been necessary to provide guards for children on the way to school.

The Japanese minister to China, Baron Goro Arita, yesterday protested to Chang Tso-Lin, the Chinese premier, over the Japanese government's failure to take steps to end the Japanese military presence in Manchuria. The government is expected to supply which it expects to be a successful outcome.

Baron Arita's spokesman was quoted today when asked as to the steps to be taken by the Japanese government to end the Japanese military presence in Manchuria. The spokesman said that the Japanese government is expected to supply which it expects to be a successful outcome.

Have you ever thought of leaving the crowded city and grind of working for others to live on a pleasant suburban homesite of a few acres, that will yield a steady and dependable income—a safe harbor for the years ahead?

A piece of good irrigated land has wonderful possibilities for the average man. It is the safest of all securities—the one permanent property that will keep you and your children, and, in Southern California, cannot lessen in value. It is the best insurance against adversity in old age.

Go where there is money. Good soil, plentiful and cheap water, good growing climate, accessible markets, location on or near main highways and railroads. These are vital factors.

Such land, bought at the right price, can make you wealthy in a few years.

Today's Greatest Homesite Bargain

At Muscoy, the new community of farm homesites adjoining the city limits of San Bernardino, we are offering a limited number of 2 to 5-acre tracts with these advantages:

Best soil that grows wonderful crops of all fruits and vegetables, perfectly adapted to poultry or rabbits. Conditions here are the best for oranges, walnuts, blackberries, figs, peaches, apricots.

Abundant, cheap water; two shares of stock in a mutual water company with no indebtedness against it with each acre.

San Bernardino is the fastest-growing inland city on the Pacific Coast, with an industrial payroll of $18,000,000 a year. Its population of 40,000 has doubled in the past five years. Its building permits to date this year are the greatest in its history. Muscoy adjoins the city limits. Acreage values are increasing every month.

$500 Per Acre on Easy Terms

Never again in Southern California will you be able to buy irrigated land with these advantages at this price. We have a limited acreage at $500 per acre, and it is going fast.

Act TODAY and solve your problem. This is the rarest bargain in high-class country homesite acreage right now in all of Southern California—and it will not last long.

If you are not ready to move on to your homesite now, begin paying for it NOW—at this low price. A small down payment and $10 to $20 paid monthly will do it.

If you want your own planted to oranges, walnuts, figs, blackberries or some other money-making fruit crop, this company will do it for you, and, if you desire, will give it complete cultural care for three years or longer, until you are ready to move to Muscoy to make your home.

Let us take you to see the property. Call at one of our offices, telephone or mail the coupon for our new illustrated booklet on Muscoy Opportunities.

JOHNSTON HEAD OF CRIME BODY

Young Confirms Reports of Appointment
Ex-Warden Served Also on Pardon Board

Commission Will Consist of Seven Members

SACRAMENTO, Sept. 8. (AP)—Gov. Young today confirmed reports that he has appointed James A. Johnston, former warden at Folsom and San Quentin State Prison, as chairman of the new commission, which will make an intensive study of all phases of crime and penology.

Johnston is regarded by Gov. Young as one of the broadest and fairest-minded men ever connected with penology. They served together for six years on the advisory pardon board and during that time Gov. Young said he found him to be a man influenced only by the right of things regardless of circumstances.

Prior to his being at the head of the prison Johnston was a Superior in San Francisco and at one time was president of the board of control. Shortly after Gov. Young took office, the first of the new commission was offered the wardenship at San Quentin, but declined because of outside business connections.

The Crime Commission when fully appointed will consist of six members in addition to the chairman. The latter, however, will be the only one who will receive a salary.

While the department prefers to dispose of bull buffalo, they will ship cows if especially requested. For exhibition purposes, however, the male is preferred, and the cow should only be requested in cases where it is desired to start a herd of bison.

These desirable buffalo should make application to the director of the National Park Service, Department of the Interior, Washington. Upon arrival of the request the park superintendent will be instructed to make shipment.

COST OF SHIPMENT
Any person receiving a buffalo will have to pay in advance the cost of capturing, crating and transporting it from the buffalo farm to Gardiner, Mont., the nearest shipping point, which amounts to approximately $70.

To this must be added the express charges for the animal, depending upon its age, but 2000 pounds may be considered as average weight. Local express agents should be able to furnish rates of shipment based on these data.

Applicants for buffalo should state the purpose for which they are desired, the facilities available for their care and the age of animal preferred.

STEEPS ALSO OFFERED
The Department of the Interior also wishes to sell about 200 surplus steers from the Yellowstone Park herd. These animals may be handled as cattle for their meat and hides. The price charged for buffalo steers is $75 per animal f.o.b. Gardiner, Mont., this amount covering transportation charges and the cost of the animal itself. It should be understood that when the animal is desired for the meat, head and hide it must be killed at the park. Steers, however, are shipped alive to other places to which bulls and cows are shipped. The nearest shipping point is to be shipped alive to be killed outside the park. Correspondence in regard to the steers should be directed to the park superintendent, Yellowstone National Park, Yellowstone Park, Wyo.

Shipments of buffalo will be made in late September, October and early November.

compensation will be fixed by the commission itself, subject to the approval of the Department of Finance. The others will receive no salary.

Provision also is made for a paid secretary, but in the case of the chairman, the commission will specify this amount, which also must be approved by the Department of Finance.

The expenses of the commission and the salary of the chairman and secretary will be paid from a $30,000 appropriation voted by the Legislature.

NEW CHANCE FOR PET BISON

Interior Department Seeks to Dispose of Surplus Buffalo in Great Yellowstone Herd

WASHINGTON, Sept. 8. (Exclusive)—The Department of the Interior is again this year offering to dispose of surplus buffalo from the great Yellowstone Park herd. This herd, developed from a small nucleus placed in the park several years ago, now numbers 850. Its rapid increase caused Congress to grant permission to dispose of the surplus. There are nearly 20,000 buffalo in the world at the present time whereas twenty years ago there were not more than 2000.

While the department prefers to dispose of bull buffalo, they will ship cows if especially requested. For exhibition purposes, however, the male is preferred, and the cow should only be requested in cases where it is desired to start a herd of bison.

These desirable buffalo should make application to the director of the National Park Service, Department of the Interior, Washington. Upon arrival of the request the park superintendent will be instructed to make shipment.

CONSUL GREETS WIFE OF CHIANG

Conference With Chief's Spouse Mystery

Refuses to Pose for Picture With Visitor

Bay City Stop on Journey Around World

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 8. (Exclusive)—Mrs. Chiang Kai-shek, wife of the military chief, who recently retired as head of the Nationalist government in China, arrived in San Francisco today on the Dollar liner President Jackson.

W. G. Kung, Consul-General here, and representatives of the Peking government, which Chiang Kai-shek sought for many months to overthrow by force of arms, went aboard when the ship docked and spent two hours in conference with Mrs. Chiang.

Neither of them gave any explanation of this gesture, and Kung entreated the reporters not to mention the fact that he greeted the wife of the Nationalist general. He refused point blank to pose with her on deck for cameramen.

SPEAKS PERFECT ENGLISH
Mrs. Chiang was accompanied by her secretary, Yui Ming, a very much Americanized young man, who is a Cornell graduate, and three young women. They were: Miss Ming Shen Wang, sister of Dr. C. T. Wang, former Foreign Minister of the Peking government, and the Misses Theresa and Helen Wang, daughters of T. J. Wang, former chairman of the Central Executive Committee of the Kuomintang, the Nationalist governing body. They are bound on a trip around the world. Mrs. Chiang said. This is her first visit to America.

Mrs. Chiang is 35 years of age, educated in China and speaks perfect English.

"Gen. Chiang Kai-shek," she said, "is a chief of the southern forces as a result of the Hankow and Nanjing disturbances. He is the object of promoting better feeling in the ranks of the Nationalist party."

The obvious reference to the split in the party when Chiang declared war on the Communist element in control of the Nationalist government at Hankow and set up a rival regime at Nanjing, this was followed by military reverses at the hands of the northern army and eventually by Chiang's retirement.

GRATEFUL TO AMERICA
Mrs. Chiang said her husband is now at Peking-Hsia, a town near Ningbo.

"While the general is out of active political life," she went on, "he is carrying on unofficially his work for the interest of the entire country."

"China is undergoing the same struggle for unification which America had to go through during and after the American revolution. I hope this unification will take place soon so that China may take her place among the great nations. China will solve her problems in time, but the world must be patient with her. The spirit of Nationalism is evident throughout the country."

"The Chinese people are grateful to America for her traditional friendship and sense of justice. When we can always look toward our sister republic."

At Los Angeles, where the party will stop, Mrs. Chiang said she will go to Washington, New York and Europe.

NEW STATE ROAD BODY IN SESSION

All Five Members Present and Action Taken in Plan for Convict Highways

SACRAMENTO, Sept. 8. (AP)—Meeting here for the first time since its membership was increased from three to five members, the Highway Commission today set aside $300,000 for continuing convict labor on the highways.

The large allotment will enable highway authorities to take advantage of approximately $150,000 of the $300,000 appropriated by the legislature for convict pay, the legislative measure specifying that the entire sum must be paid to the convicts as their net wages.

As the expense of maintaining a camp is approximately twice that of the highway, the commission during the next two years must set aside $250,000 to make a survey of the Oroville-Miller route through the northern foothills of the Feather River Canyon.

Notice also was sent to authorities at Monterey that a survey of the Carmel-San Simeon highway has been approved and will be started by October 1.

Several conferences were held with Northern California delegates during the late afternoon on highway problems.

Harder Answers Snook's Charges

SACRAMENTO, Sept. 8. (AP)—C. E. Harder, chief inspector for the Motor Vehicle Department, suspended by Frank O. Snook, department chief, the inspector today made harder answers to two charges of dishonesty, insubordination, inefficiency and dishonesty, late today filed with the state highway commission. The charges were made by Snook, who is in the instance in which he admits the truth of the specification that the details were before his chief and apparently met his satisfaction as he approved the step recommended by Snook.

Harder in his answer to the charges, which he wrote to the highway commission, leaves the next move in the case up to Snook. He can either hear the case himself or transfer it to the Civil Service Commission for hearing at some future date.

Sisters to Get Bingham Estate

NEW YORK, Sept. 8. (Exclusive)—Her two sisters are to share equally the residuary estate of Amelia Bingham, the actress who died a week ago. The value of the estate is mentioned in the will as in excess of $10,000.

Besides the bequests to the two sisters, Mino Leslie of 558 East Thirty-ninth street, Portland, Ore., and Clara Hartley of Hicksville, O., several minor bequests are made to relatives and organizations.

After directing that her body be buried by the side of that of her husband, Lloyd Bingham, who died in 1915 while on Henry Ford's peace ship, Mrs. Bingham's will orders that her Riverside Drive home, for some time noted landmark, be sold as soon as possible.

That was in connection with the appointment in Kern county of a traffic officer previously asked to resign in another district.

Although he emphatically denies the six counts of inefficiency, Harder claims the specifications are so vague that it is impossible for either he or his attorney to determine what

The Foo Englishman

By FRANK CRANE

SAK leaned back and gave a great yawn, stretching his legs till the steam-er-chair cracked threateningly under his two hundred and twenty pounds.

"You're a sort of an it's a fine day let's kill something feeling, I suppose, on account of associating with the English," suggested Topp.

"Well, with eight meals a day, there isn't much time for anything else," I suppose if a man would chew every bite thirty-two times, like Gladstone, he really could eat all the time on shipboard. By the way, isn't it about the hour for the deck steward to be passing the tea and sandwiches?"

"Four," answered Topp, looking at his watch. We glanced up and down the deck, seeking the Englishman and his tray. Then we saw the Englishman coming out of the smoking-room.

The Englishman was a fresh-faced youth of apparently twenty-five summers. We had become pretty well acquainted with him and liked him much. He was the Englishman who had ever met. He talked in that way, London tones of voice, turned up every sentence at the end like a sled-runner, and displayed the most amazing jumble of ignorant conceptions of the United States that any foreigner ever owned. He had given his name as Algernon Suffolk.

"Ah, there's our cutsey friend," said Topp. "And yonder's the tea coming. Who'd a thought a big, strapping brute like me would be sitting around drinking tea? And craving it, too, by jinks—actually wanting the stuff."

"The Englishman came along and we invited him to join us." "Thanked," he replied, and sat down by us. "Do you know, I'm a kinsman—a cousin—there somewhere. Possibly I'll go to New Orleans and Denver too."

"Why don't you take in those cities on your way to Canada?" "Why, I hadn't thought of that. Can I do that?"

"Easy," answered Sam. "You take the Rockwell Pipe Line from New York and get a stop-over at New Orleans and Denver and Long Island. Don't cost any more."

"Yes, it's worth it." "Two dollars more. But then, it's worth it." "Two dollars," remarked Algernon. "Let me see; that is about eight shillings."

Algernon's face expressed the most naive surprise—"Ducedly exciting, isn't it?" he remarked.

mostly in the daytime, too. There are a great many hold-ups at night, on the coast. "Hold-ups? What are they?"

"Why, robberies, you know. Masked men hold the train up and rob all the passengers."

"How extraordinary! Do they do this often?" "Oh, tolerably. Some lines have hold-ups every night, but on the Transatlantic line they don't usually have 'em except Tuesdays and Saturdays."

Algernon's face expressed the most naive surprise. "Ducedly exciting, isn't it?" he remarked. "Well, I guess yes," returned Sam. "Something doing about then."

"You wait till you get to Chicago, though," I interrupted. "That's right," echoed Sam and Topp.

"—do you have any trouble with the Indians there?" inquired Algernon. "In the summer only," I said. "They get pretty bad in summer. But in the winter they mostly keep in the woods, and we are seldom bothered by them."

"And cowboys, don't you know, and all that sort of thing?" asked Algernon. "Do they come right into the city?" "Not Well, I should remark! Right south of where I live is a cowboy boarding house. You stop at the Auditorium, and almost any fine afternoon you can see them chasing a pack of Indians or a herd of long-horned Texas steers down Michigan avenue."

Algernon's face was lit up with interest. He tossed off the last drops of tea from his cup, and asked: "I say fellows, wouldn't miss that for anything. It must be rattling good sport. Can a man get a chance to join in—that is—do you think?"

"Well, I don't know about that," answered Sam. "You see they're rather particular about Englishmen. Foolish prejudice, of course. What do you think, Topp?"

"Oh, I can get him a license, all right. I know the Mayor. You come right along, Mr. Suffolk, and we'll see that you have a horse and a run."

"By Jove!" said the Englishman, Compañía, ha anunciado haber designado ya los señores de la división en la cuarta campaña anual en pro del corral, la que comienza, según el aviso, el 31 del próximo Octubre. La división número 71 comprende la sección noroeste del barrio comercial.

BOMBER KILLED BY OWN WEAPON

Two Others Victims of Chicago Explosions

Premature Blast in Liquor War, Police Believe

Officers Abandon Theory of Blown Up Still

CHICAGO, Sept. 8. (P)—Prohibition authorities who investigated two explosions which wrecked two south-side alcohol plants and killed three men, besides injuring several others, were not due to accidents but were caused by dynamite bombs deliberately used by members of rival gangs engaged in an alcohol war. Joseph Bangora, one of the men killed, was identified today by the police as a notorious bomb planter. The officers were sure that Bangora, once affiliated with the Genna gang, had been killed by a premature explosion of one of his own bombs. An examination of the ruins of the building at 2618 Prairie avenue revealed a still containing alcohol which was intact. This convinced officers that the blast was caused by a bomb from without. The two other victims remained unidentified tonight.

RIGHTER AND TUCKER LAND AT MILLS FIELD

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 8. (P)—Pilot W. C. Richter and Paul Tucker arrived at Mills Field this afternoon en route from Los Angeles to New York. They intend to make a leisurely cruise across the continent preparatory to competing in the New York-Spokane air derby.

DETROIT RIVALS CHICAGO

DETROIT, Sept. 8. (Exclusive)—Detroit is leading Chicago by a large margin in the number of murders so far this year. Between January 1 and the 1st inst., Chicago had only forty-one killings, while Detroit had ninety-four in the same period. Detroit, since January 1, has had more than twice the number of homicides than the oft-called "nation's most dangerous city" has had. The figure of ninety-four homicides here up to the 1st inst. this year, was pointed to with pride by Police Commissioner William P. Rutledge several days ago. There were only ninety-four killings here between January 1 and September 1, he said, whereas in 1926 there were 161 in that period. Chicago had only fifty-five murders during the whole of 1926, whereas Detroit had 225. During the first eight months of 1927, Chicago had only thirty-two, or 129 fewer than Detroit in the same time. Figures from other large cities of the country show that New York alone has had more murders than Detroit. New York, four times the size of Detroit, has had only 138 murders during the first eight months of this year, compared to Detroit's ninety-four. During all of last year, New York had only 281 murders, whereas Detroit had 225, only fifty-six fewer.

'CAT BANDIT' OF CHICAGO IDENTIFIED

Store Clerk Recognized as Man Who Preyed on Women for Year

CHICAGO, Sept. 8. (P)—A slim dark-haired man of 27 years, who worked in a department store as a clerk in the daytime and preyed on women three nights a week while waiting to meet his wife and escort her home from work, today is identified by more than a score of women victims as Chicago's elusive "cat bandit" for whom the police have been searching for a year. The "cat" identifies himself as William E. Mitchell, formerly of St. Louis, readily confessing the robberies of many unsecured women and boasts an $8000 bank account as a result of his campaign. Besides this jewelry valued at several thousand dollars was found in his apartment. Mitchell denies stories of some of his victims that he had attempted to attack them criminally. FAIR ACQUITTED IN SLAYING GREENVILLE (S. C.) Sept. 8. (P)—Mrs. Ethel Willis and Henry Townsend were acquitted here today of a charge of murdering Sam D. Willis, former sheriff of Greenville county. Mrs. Willis's husband, Willis, was shot to death in his garage at midnight several weeks ago. TWENTY-FIVE FLOOD TOLL WARSAW, Sept. 8. (P)—Twenty-five persons are reported to have been drowned and 2000 families are said to be homeless in Kosow county alone as the result of the floods which have been devastating that part of the country.

A Firm Finger Wave Can be Set without Water

Heretofore young women have used water to set finger waves. This has caused the hair to dry and where the water contained alkali it caused irritation of the scalp. The new way is to first shampoo with Menth-O-Foam—get the hair cleaner than you have ever known before and while it is still damp set the waves with the fingers. Menth-O-Foam is a tonic shampoo scientifically prepared. It not only leaves the hair gloriously full of life and lustrous but controls scalp diseases. Try it today—you will know a new joy in hair cleansing and a quicker more convenient way—

OUR HISTORY IN PICTURES 816 The Story of Fort Phil Kearney—Part VIII Attack on the Wood Train.

by J. CARROLL MANSFIELD

GENERAL VIEW OF FORT PHIL KEARNEY, KEARNEY CONTINUED THEIR LOOING EXPEDITIONS AFTER THE WINTER OF 1886 HAD SET IN AND BY THE LATTER PART OF DECEMBER THE DEFENSES WERE FINISHED. BUT THE COMPLETION OF THE FORT BROUGHT THE GARRISON NO FEELING OF SECURITY. REINFORCEMENTS WERE NEEDED BADLY, AND THERE WERE ONLY FORTY ROUNDS OF AMMUNITION TO EACH MAN.

HUNDREDS OF MILES AWAY, IN WASHINGTON, ON DEC. 8, 1886, PRESIDENT JOHNSON CONGRATULATED CONGRESS UPON THE SIGHTING OF THE TREATY WITH THE SIOUX AT FORT LARAMIE, AND THE REIGN OF PEACE IN THE FAR WEST. AT THAT VERY MOMENT, FORT PHIL KEARNEY WAS ALMOST IN A STATE OF SIEGE.

ON DECEMBER 19TH, THE WOOD TRAIN, RETURNING FROM THE PINY ISLAND LOOING CAMP, WAS ATTACKED BY A HORDE OF RED SKINS. A PICKET POST SIGNALLIED THE FORT, AND A STRONG CAVALRY DETACHMENT UNDER CAPTAIN POWELL DASHED OUT TO RESCUE THE TRAIN.

THE ASSAILANTS FLED, BUT POWELL, FOLLOWING ORDERS NOT TO PURSUE THE ESCAPING HORDE, HALTED ON LODGE TRAIL. BUCK AND SMOKE, WHO LED HIS COMMAND AND THE TRAIN BACK TO THE POST IN SAFETY.

CHEERFUL CHAFF

BY TIMES READERS

WRITE FOR THE "MOVIE" AND WIN CASH PRIZES
The Los Angeles Times produces a popular fun reel called "Cheerful Chaff," consisting of the twelve best jokes submitted weekly by readers. Twelve $1 prizes are awarded each week, the names and addresses of winners together with prize-winning jokes appearing on the screen.
Everyone is invited to send jokes. No formal letter is necessary. Just jot down your jokes, as many as you wish, sign your name and address and mail to "Cheerful Chaff Editor," Los Angeles Times. Jokes for the screen must not exceed thirty words.
Sensational jokes too long or otherwise not adapted for screen use, are awarded a place of honor on the Times comic page, receiving a souvenir of acknowledgment.

Cubs Wallop Cards and Regain Third Place

SPORTS The Los Angeles Times

FRIDAY MORNING, SEPTEMBER 9, 1927.

WILDEN BEATS COCHET; LA COSTE TRIMS JOHNSTON

Forty-Fifth Year for Root
The Cubs today won their forty-fifth year for Root, as they defeated the Cardinals 10-7 in a game that was a real war of attrition. The Cubs were in the lead for most of the game, but the Cardinals fought back in the eighth and ninth innings to make it a close contest. The Cubs' victory was a real relief, as they had been losing for a long time.

NEW YORK, Sept. 8. (P)—The New York Yankees hung up their nineteenth straight victory from the St. Louis Browns today, as Walter Hoyt, winning a pitch, beat the Browns 3 to 1.

It was Hoyt's twentieth victory of the season. He yielded only three hits, one being Earl Williams' seventh-inning homer. Jones gave out four strikes. Ruth drew three bases on balls in four times up.

It was Lammert day at the stadium with 20,000 fans on hand. Before the contest, the Yankees star infielder was presented with a floral wreath by a committee of prominent Italian-Americans headed by Acting Mayor McKee. Score:

SERAPHS STARS IN TWO GAMES

Marty Krug's lowly Angels, who have defeated the Hollywood Stars in their last three starts, will meet the Shells in an Admission Day double-header at Wrigley Field today and attempt to run their winning streak to beyond the realm of the belief of their fondest admirers. Krug will start Glenn Gahler, the 17-year-old Long Beach kid, who promises to be the pitching stud of the season, in one of the games. Gahler was recommended to the Angels by George "Firebrand" Stovall, former major-league pitcher, who dug up the youngster in Long Beach. Gahler is plenty big and has impressed Krug with his assortment of "stuff."

BY THE LOS ANGELES TIMES

ALL together now boys, let's pray for a good old-fashioned top-notch quarter-back to put in an appearance this year. With the exception of Butch Meeker of Washington State we can't remember a really outstanding sample of the old genus quarterback in the past half a dozen years. Don Williams of U.S.C. has the dash but he's more of a halfback than a quarterback. The same thing was true of Morten Kallstrom, who was great but they haven't the quality that makes outstanding quarter-backs.

OBSERVATIONS

By genuine outstanding quarter-back qualities we mean appearance of having the situation well in hand. When little Butch Meeker comes on the field he seems to complete the picture of the situation. He is a sort of a general in the manner in which he directs the play. He is a sort of a general in the manner in which he directs the play.

OBSERVATIONS

There have been a lot of great quarter-backs in the past. All who saw Charley Erb run the California wonder team will testify that he had the qualifications of a great quarter-back. The last time he had one of those U.S.C. "Big Hitters" was when he put the boys of the University of California to rout in the 1925 season. He was a great quarter-back. He was a great quarter-back.

Godfrey Stops Van Patten in Second Round

Godfrey, who was the favorite, won the match in the second round. Van Patten was knocked out by a right hand to the jaw.

Godfrey's victory was a surprise to many. He had been considered a novice, but he showed great skill and power.

Godfrey's manager, who was with him throughout the fight, was very confident of his victory. He had seen Godfrey's training and knew he was ready for the fight.

Godfrey's victory was a great one for him. It was his first professional win, and it was a very impressive one.

AUERBACH, COLIMA SIGN MAT BOUT LIKELY TO BE ROUGH

Middleweights Lined Up to Top Olympic Program Tuesday Night; Taylor Go Date Set

Herman Auerbach and Bert Colima will make 155 pounds for their ten-round bout at the Olympic Tuesday night. The match was closed yesterday.

This bout turned out to be one of the most sought-after matches in California. San Francisco, San Diego and Salt Lake City were bidding against Los Angeles clubs.

Auerbach has proven in his last few starts that he has a great chance to whip Colima or anybody else his weight. Jimmy Duffy of Oakland turned down an offer to box Auerbach.

"What, boy that Auerbach!" said Duffy over long-distance telephone. "Give me Colima or anybody else, but not Auerbach."

Duffy saw Auerbach beat Freddie Mack the other evening. If he had watched Auerbach give Paul De Hake a thrashing a few weeks ago, Duffy undoubtedly would have made his refusal even stronger.

The two six-round bouts—both naturals—which were to have been the support of the head Taylor-Johnson fight, were postponed, will be staged Tuesday.

One of them is Joey Medill, winner of thirty-eight straight fights in Chicago, and Dario Barron at 130 pounds. The other is Mike Walters, who has won three fights as a professional, and Jimmy Fox, Matchmaker Wad Walters rates both of these scraps as semi-wind-ups. They will dip a coin to see which goes on first.

Taylor is recovering from his attack of boils and the match with Dango is definitely set for the 20th inst.

Stecher Says He Will Use Rough Tactics in Downing Davis Court

Almost definite assurance that the coming title bout between Joe Stecher, world's wrestling champion, and Dick Davis Court, scheduled for the Olympic Wednesday night, will be another rough and wild affair was given yesterday in the title-holder's declaration he would meet the Wichita grappler at his own game to prevent the latter from applying his paralyzing headlocks.

According to Stecher, the same rough methods Davis Court used against Jim London in keeping the little Greek from getting over his favorite hold on Davis Court will be used on the 235-pound Wichita grappler.

THREE FOR MCNULTY

Pat McNulty, who performed in center field for the Stars, did most of the hitting off Gardner, coming up with a pair of doubles and a single in four times at bat. Gale Staley and Jack Kahn each registered a double and a single for the Cherrubs.

Hollywood got a run in its half of the first inning after filling the bases with but one out. Holley skied out for a starter, but Lee singled in-field and McNulty followed with a double to left. Twombly walked in All the bases. Bud Lowell lifted a sacrifice fly to John, scoring Lee. Gardner retired Frederick on a roller to Staley to get out of the jam.

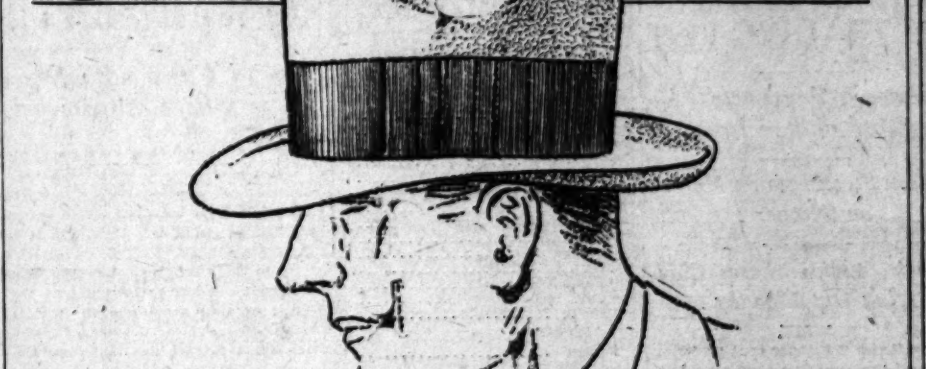

Mulcahy got rid of Wells and Brull in the Angel first and then his troubles began. Staley whizzed a single over second and John got an infield hit when his torrid line drive caromed off Mulcahy's anatomy. Mulcahy tried to pick up the ball in time to get Kahn at first, but the ball just kept out of Phil's reach. John's bullet-like drive evidently took a little enthusiasm out of Mulcahy, for Wally Hood drove Phil's next offering for the circuit and three runs. On Hood's drive the ball landed on top of the left center-field wall, and then bounced out into Thirty-ninth street.

The Angels picked up another run in the fourth when Kahn doubled down the right-field line, went to third on Frederick's wide throw-in, and scored on Hannan's sacrifice fly to Twombly.

STARS GET LAST RUN

The Stars made their last marker in the sixth. Lowell led off with a hit to center but was forced by Frederick. Kerr slapped a double up against the left-field fence, putting Frederick on third, from where Johnny counted while Kahn was toiling out Agnew.

NEW YORK BOND PRICES

NEW YORK, Sept. 9. (AP)—Although there were numerous evidences of realising which clipped traction from quotations on several high-grade railroad mortgages, the main price trend in the bond market here today was again upward, the highest money quotations continued to supply the foundation which kept prices within striking distance of their high levels for the year.

Goodrich Tire is showed further rising tendency. These bonds, which fell sharply after the dissolution of the offering syndicate, got as low as 91 3/4, from which point they have gradually recovered until they sold today around 95. Other industrial bonds were inactive, with the exception of Shell Union Oil Co. of which heavy offerings were absorbed with only a small fractional recession.

Public Utility issues showed mixed tendencies. International Telephone Co. in heavy demand, rose fractionally to 94 3/4, the highest at which they have sold this year. Cities Service Power Co. was under heavy pressure, selling at 91 3/4, the lowest at which they have sold this year.

Among the numerous railway issues which reflected realising were Chesapeake Corporation Co., Erie Refunding Co., Rock Island Co. and Southern Railway Co. Chesapeake Corporation Co. was played by the low-price New Haven 5 1/2 per cent bonds, which were sold at 91 3/4, the lowest at which they have sold this year.

Foreign bonds were more active than recently, especially Italian 5 per cent bonds, which were sold at 91 3/4, the lowest at which they have sold this year.

There was further buying of second mortgage 1 1/4s around 100 1/4-100 1/2, but the price trend of government securities as a whole was irregular. Treasury 4 1/2s were sold at 100 1/4, the lowest at which they have sold this year.

Domestic bonds were more active than recently, especially Italian 5 per cent bonds, which were sold at 91 3/4, the lowest at which they have sold this year.

There was further buying of second mortgage 1 1/4s around 100 1/4-100 1/2, but the price trend of government securities as a whole was irregular. Treasury 4 1/2s were sold at 100 1/4, the lowest at which they have sold this year.

Domestic bonds were more active than recently, especially Italian 5 per cent bonds, which were sold at 91 3/4, the lowest at which they have sold this year.

COTTON FLURRY DAY'S FEATURE

 The outlook for increased traffic toward the end of the year, Chicago and Ohio touched 100-102 and was followed upward by New York Central, Pennsylvania, Atchafalpa and various others.
 Several of the automobile issues moved against the lead of General Motors, especially Studebaker and Chrysler. The latter was strong, jumping 6 points to a new top price of 100. The principal commodity markets showed slight improvement and sugar was generally higher. Grains were generally unchanged. Cotton was up 10 points to 47.14 cents by Japanese yen and a 7-point drop in the Portuguese market. The foreign exchange market, however, showed a slight decline. The French franc just below 9.52 cents.

RIVER ISSUE DISCUSSED TOMORROW

California Commission to Meet Here to Consider Conference Developments

The California Colorado River Commission will meet tomorrow afternoon in the offices of the Department of Water and Power to discuss the present condition of affairs as it relates to the Governor's conference on the Colorado River Compact, now in recess until the 19th inst., according to W. B. Mathews, a member of the commission.

Replying to the intimations of Arizona commissioners that California prefers not to discuss the compact, Mathews declared positively that California prefers not to discuss the compact, Mathews declared positively that California prefers not to discuss the compact, Mathews declared positively that California prefers not to discuss the compact.

CELEBRATES TODAY

Observance of Admission Date Will be Reminiscent of Early California Days

Story, feats of horsemanship and sports characteristic of the early days of California will be the feature of the celebration to be held here on September 9, 1850.

The celebration will be a feature of the morning's program, with an exhibition of dancing and a variety of entertainment numbers, including Spanish dances.

Prizes for the different contests are to be awarded tonight, during the evening festival, in which dancing will have a prominent place. Judge Joseph P. Sproul, vice-chairman of the festival, declared that the celebration will be a feature of the morning's program, with an exhibition of dancing and a variety of entertainment numbers, including Spanish dances.

PURCHASING MEN HEADED BY KETCHUM

Meeting Elects Officers; New Charts to be Made to Aid Local Buying

Robert M. Ketchum, purchasing director for the General Petroleum Corporation of this city, formally was made president of the Los Angeles Purchasing Agents' Association for the coming year at a banquet in the City Club Building last evening.

As assistants to Mr. Ketchum on the executive staff, other officers installed include Cliff Thorburn, first vice-president; Robert Adams, second vice-president; and William H. Jackson, third vice-president.

ROBERT M. KETCHUM

The organization consists of more than 200 business and industrial purchasing agents in this city, representing an annual buying power of $200,000,000.

After being inducted, Mr. Ketchum outlined the course of work in expanding the association for the next twelve-month period.

A special committee has been formed to prepare special charts of the manufacturing and industrial districts in Southern California to guide the agents in buying locally.

A new industrial committee has been appointed by Mr. Ketchum, it was announced, to assist the local Chamber of Commerce in the work of bringing new industries to this section.

LINDSEY TO PRACTICE IN SOUTHLAND

Noted Denver Judge Asks State Court for Admission; Plans Part Time Here

Ben E. Lindsey, juvenile judge, yesterday filed application in the California District Court of Appeal for admission to the local bar.

In a statement yesterday at the Ambassador Hotel in Denver, he said: "This merely means that I have made some business connections here and I may be called on to practice law in this State. Later on, I hope, I may be able to spend more of my time in California, but with the present outlook I merely will be here and Denver."

DUCK HUNT ENDS IN BOY'S DEATH

What was intended as a pleasure hunt turned into a tragedy for Donald Lieb, 16 years of age, 3016 Division street, when hunting ducks on a lake near Palmdale yesterday. Reports to the sheriff's office said that the youth fell into the lake just after shooting a duck and was drowned. The body was taken to a mortuary in Lancaster.

Junk Collector Who Amassed Fortune Wills Estate to Mother of His "Little Maria," Sweetheart of His Youth in Italy

For more than twenty years residents of the Hollenbeck Heights district would hear the more or less melodious voice of Federico Lopena raised in his daily lay about rags, bottles and such. No one ever thought of romance, however, in connection with the neighborhood ragpicker.

For the past two weeks, however, Lopena has not been heard, nor has his rickety junk wagon been on the streets. For Lopena died a couple of weeks ago.

JACOBSON THREAT TO END LIFE TOLD BY WITNESS

'I'm Through,' Councilman Quoted as Capt. Wallis Describes Raid; Eleven Women on Jury

When Councilman Carl I. Jacobson was arrested with Mrs. Callie Grimes in a vice raid at the woman's home, 1472 Beagle street, on August 5, last, he asked one of the raiding officers for a gun with which to "put a bullet in my brain," Capt. Bert Wallis, head of the raiding party, testified before a jury of eleven women and one man at the trial in Municipal Judge Willis's court yesterday.

NEW VICE LIST GIVEN TO COUNCIL

In Absence of Jacobson Members Refer Charges of Ingram to Police

Councilman Jacobson, the Council's official vice-crusader, was missed at yesterday's session of the City Council, when the name of Albert Ingram was mentioned against whom Jacobson has hurled many resolutions.

Marco's name was brought up when Chairman Ingram of the Police and Fire Committee notified the Council that he, too, has obtained a list of places where it was asserted the vice laws are being broken, a different list than that presented recently by President Bonelli. After Ingram's letter had been read, Councilman Hall said:

"What's that? A new list of asserted vice resorts? Could it be possible that there are two vice rings operating in Los Angeles? We have heard much of Albert Marco and his activities. Are there others?"

Chairman Ingram said that the new list giving fourteen locations on North Main street, North Spring street and on Crocker street reached him in an anonymous letter, which declared there was discrimination in that the first list had neglected the fourteen places listed in the letter to Ingram. The Council was all set to hear a fiery debate about vice rings and kings of the underworld, but the argument fizzled out due to the absence of Councilman Jacobson, who is the only Councilman who has taken an enthusiastic interest in the matter.

Councilman Ingram said that his list of asserted vice resorts should be sent to the Police Commission, as he is the only Councilman who has taken an enthusiastic interest in the matter.

"I don't know about that," said Councilman Hall. "As long as the Council has taken an interest in vice conditions, why not go to the bottom of the matter and let the people know what is going on. Maybe we are not detectives and maybe we should not get sniping about it, but still the public should know the facts."

President Bonelli supported Councilman Ingram's contention that it is the duty of the Police Commission to dig into the matter and so the new list of asserted vice resorts was sent to the commission.

PACT WITH FRANCE URGED

Capt. Chamberlain Tells University Club Treaty Will Be First Step to Outlaw War

Declaring the offer of Foreign Minister Briand of France to enter into a mutual agreement with the United States to outlaw war, offers this country the opportunity to lead the way toward international organization for settlement of differences by peaceful methods, Capt. Thomas G. Chamberlain, attorney and former secretary of the Geneva Institute of International Law, spoke on America's foreign relations at the University Club.

Acceptance of the proposition made by Minister Briand will pave the way to similar agreements with other world powers, Mr. Chamberlain said, and in time the total abolition of war can be effected. Refusal to accept leaves only the present road of war, he declared.

FACTS EXPIRE SOON
Mr. Chamberlain said that at present the United States has arbitration treaties with France, Great Britain, Japan and other large nations but these treaties, he said, exempt from settlement by arbitration all vital matters and affairs concerning the honor of the nations involved. New treaties must be entered into with the three named countries, Mr. Chamberlain said, as each of the pacts expires in 1928.

One of the most important things touched upon by Mr. Chamberlain is America's foreign policy and politics. "This much is certain," Mr. Chamberlain declared, "our foreign policy must not be made the football of party politics. If our effectiveness in foreign affairs has been atrophied, it is because we have thought first of ourselves and secondly, whether our foreign policy should be one of isolation or co-operation."

LOCARNO BASIS
Centering his discussion on the proposal of Foreign Minister Briand, the speaker declared the offer is that the basic principles underlying the Locarno Treaty, including the outlawry of war and the definition of the aggressor as that country refusing to

PESTS

That was a dirty slam; and about the truest observation I have seen for some time.
Oysters are a pest; they either tell old wheezes that you have heard at the same vaudeville show they did; or waddle through dreary inanities. Generally speaking, anyone who has anything to say worth saying writes it.

WILL ROGERS

This wandering cowpuncher, Will Rogers, grows upon one. I used to read him for his jokes. The jokes have become a secondary consideration.
He has the sanest, soundest philosophy of anyone writing today. They call it "horse sense." It is far more than that; it is illumined genius. Said in a very plain, horse-sense way, because it is only genius which can acquire great simplicity.

LIVING FOREVER

A great chemist has discovered that man can be resurrected from the dead by the use of adrenalin; and Freud, the great psychoanalyst, gives out an important and striking insight when he says that life is not worth living; and that everybody should be glad to die.

WHAT'S LIFE ALL ABOUT?

I guess the trouble with Freud is that he has looked the gift horse in the mouth.
He has tried too hard to find out what life is all about, instead of just accepting it.
Life is like a dinner; some of the dishes you like, and some do not intrigue your tasting apparatus. But probably they are all good for you. Anyhow, you would rebel if it were all pie. I once heard of a gentleman who was doomed to die, and he asked for nothing but quail on toast for a protracted period. He said it was eventually a toss-up for choice between that and starvation.

FAITHLESS!

A drunken prohibition agent is on trial for manslaughter; but nobody seems to think he deserves punishment for being drunk.
The fact is that policemen get neither praise enough nor blame enough. Those who have distinguished themselves for good service—just plain good service as well as spectacular deeds—should be decorated with some insignia easily and generally recognized by the public.

DOOR-TO-DOOR

The problems of evangelism are for churches to solve; but the culprit is dead to all decent men.

Mystery Shots Fired From Car at Hollywood Modiste's Shop

FAMOUS SINGER SEEN AS TARGET

Husband of Alice Gentle Owns Attacked Store

Two Bullets Come from Car That Speeds Away

Unidentified Enemies of Diva Blamed by Spouse

Two shots fired from a fast-moving automobile struck the Modest of the Moment shop at 8700 Sunset Boulevard late yesterday afternoon, furnishing police with a mystery to which they so far have found no clue. The shop is owned by McLean Bisbee and Jacob Proebstel, the latter being the husband of Alice Gentle, opera singer. Miss Gentle was not in the shop at the time but had been there five minutes before.

The theory is that the shots were fired from a "cooling" car. The owners of the shop say they have no enemies and have no idea why anyone should shoot at the place. They were inclined to believe the bullets were not intended for the shop.

ONE HITS VASE

One of the bullets struck the side of the building and ricocheted, the other pierced a plate-glass window and dropped inside an antique vase. This bullet, though considerably splintered, resembled one from a .28-caliber revolver.

The car from which the shots proceeded passed so rapidly that it was out of sight before the surprised owners could rush to the street, and no one, so far as known, obtained its license number. Constable Cook of Sherman conducted an investigation, but was unable to learn anything of value.

The shooting took place at 4:40 o'clock, Proebstel said.

FEARS FOR SINGER

"Although Miss Gentle was not in the store at the time of the shooting, and has no enemies, I am convinced the shots were either intended to do her physical harm or to serve her so that she would lose her influence to have the shop discontinued," Proebstel declared.

My business associate and I were in the rear room at the time the shooting and no one was present in the display room, into which the bullet, though considerably splintered, resembled one from a .28-caliber revolver.

A guard was placed about the store last night and Constable Cook will continue the investigation, he announced last night.

MERCANTILE CHAIN ADDS NEW STORE

May Company Today Take Over Unit Acquired by Purchase in Baltimore

Purchase of a department store in Baltimore, Md., announced yesterday by the May Company, gives that organization its first store on the east coast, and it now extends from the Pacific to the Atlantic, with buyers in all sections of the United States.

The new acquisition was bought outright from the Bernheimer Leader Store Company. Located on Lexington and Howard streets and to be the busiest corner in Baltimore, the building is eight stories in height, fireproof throughout and completely equipped. It provides 350,000 square feet of space for retail purposes, with high ceilings permitting of perfect ventilating arrangements.

All delivery trucks are conveyed by large van elevators in the structure to the sub-basement, which provides one of the finest and best-equipped delivery departments in the country. The principal retail establishments of Baltimore are located within one block of the new May Company store, which is within a block of the City Market. The company takes possession of the new place today.

Boy on Coaster Killed by Auto as They Collide

Two vehicles going at about the same speed collided yesterday in Plintridge avenue, Plintridge, and the driver of the smaller one, Payton Stanton, 12 years of age, riding a boy's coaster, was killed. The other vehicle, a Holla-Royce, was reported to the Sheriff's office, was traveling at a slow rate of speed.

The driver of the automobile, Julius Bonini, chauffeur for Mrs. George F. Foster of Plintridge took the boy to the Pasadena Emergency Hospital, but he died on the way. He had coasted his little vehicle out of the driveway of ex-Senator Flint when the two collided. The case was investigated by Deputy Sheriff Blasdel.

PAVING PETITIONED

Edmund Waller and other property owners yesterday asked the City Council to pave One Hundred and Twentieth street from Main street to Arden Boulevard, with seven-inch concrete, the roadway to be fifty feet and the improvement to include sidewalks, curbs, sewers and water mains.

LOVE POTION DEFENDANT FACES TRIAL

Dr. De Nelson Smith to Answer Before Jury for Poison Given Inventor

Municipal Judge McConnell yesterday held Dr. De Nelson Smith to answer to the Superior Court for trial on a charge of administering poison to Peter B. Gonsett, an inventor, of 902 Cloverdale street.

Mrs. Irene Gonsett, wife of the complainant, was vigorously cross-examined throughout the morning session yesterday as defense attorneys sought to break down her testimony of the previous day. The effect that Dr. Smith admitted he was slowly poisoning her husband. "Our friendship with never been covered, for your husband will soon be out of the way and then we can be married," the physician told Mrs. Gonsett, according to her testimony. Dr. Smith is accused of administering pills containing strychnine, mercury and digitalis, according to a chemical analysis of the medicines given Gonsett.

The defendant is held in $2500 bail.

BIBLE PROVIDES ANSWER IN SUIT

De Mille Turns to New Testament for Reply to Action of Valeska Suratt Charging Plagiarism in Film Spectacle Built on Life of Christ

Cecil B. De Mille went back to the Bible last night to answer charges brought in New York yesterday by Valeska Suratt, former stage and screen actress, accusing De Mille of plagiarizing a story owned by her and which she charges he used to make the screen spectacle, "The King of Kings."

"I have always been under the impression that Matthew, Mark, Luke and John were the first to write the story of the Christ," De Mille declared. "If Valeska Suratt pretends them in authorship, then they have the wrong names in the New Testament."

Miss Suratt says she purchased the motion-picture rights to a book called "Mary Magdalen," written by Mirra Ahmed Schrab Schrab, and in her suit declares the recent biblical picture made by De Mille is based upon her story. She asks $1,000,000 damages. She further contends the De Mille picture was produced following submission of her story to the producer which he kept for five months before returning it, she adds.

De Mille, MacPherson, scenarist and author of most of De Mille's productions, the Keith-Albee vaudeville circuit, the Producers Distributing Corporation and Cecil B. De Mille Pictures Corporation are named as defendants.

ACTOR FACES NEW CHARGE

Cullen Landis, Just Out of Jail on Alimony Case, Sought on Failure to Provide Plea

Having just completed a five-day "stretch" in the City Jail for being in arrears in his monthly payments of alimony, Cullen Landis, film actor, yesterday was being sought on another charge growing out of his marital difficulties.

A complaint for the arrest of Landis on a charge of failing to provide for his two minor children, June, 9 years of age, and Verette, 5, was issued during the afternoon by Amelia Johnson, Deputy City Prosecutor, and officers were sent to arrest him on "night," any time of the day or night.

The complaint was issued at the instigation of the actor's former wife, Mrs. Mignon Landis, who declared she learned that her husband is planning to dispose of his Hollywood property and leave the State. The actor earns $1000 a week, of which he must pay $500 a month for the support of his children, Mrs. Landis said, but he has not sided in his financial upkeep during the months of July, August and September.

Municipal Judge George Bullock set bail on the warrant at $1000. Landis's address was given as 606 Weldon Drive, Beverly Hills, and Landis's 1234 Flower street, West Hollywood. Landis was divorced from Mignon Landis about two years ago. He since has married Lela Hearne, a Virginia girl who was a childhood sweetheart. His marriage was solemnized about one month ago in Ta. Spain.

NEW EFFORT TO OUST TRUSTEES

Officials of Huntington Park Named in Court Order

Refusal to Act on Petition for Recall Charged

Hearing in Case on Calendar for Next Wednesday

The municipal embroilments of Huntington Park were taken before the Superior Court again yesterday, when Presiding Judge Bishop signed an order calling upon Nelson A. Blanchard, Frank Pith and John W. Wood, City Trustees, to appear in court and show cause why they should not be removed from office and ordered to pay $500 each.

Hearing on the order is set for next Wednesday before Judge Gates. Charges that the three Trustees failed and refused to act on a petition properly signed and submitted for an election to name a successor to Wood are the basis of an accusation filed yesterday by George Barclay, as recitor, in the name of the people of the State of California. It is on the strength of this accusation that Presiding Judge Bishop made his order calling the three to account before Judge Gates.

August 20, last, according to the accusation, there was filed with the City Clerk of Huntington Park a properly and sufficiently signed petition for the recall of Wood. The clerk certified to its sufficiency and on the 24th inst. it was laid before the Board of Trustees for action. A motion to call an election in response to the petition was made and seconded, and the three accused Trustees voted "no," according to the accusation. They then voted to conduct an "investigation" of the situation and to have photostatic copies of the petition made for that purpose.

Their votes of "no" on the motion for an election constitute negligence of their duty, it is charged, because it is the statutory duty of Trustees to arrange for an election when a properly prepared petition is submitted. It also is charged that the motion to "investigate" was simply an attempt to procrastinate.

Barclay asks that the accused Trustees be removed and that judgment be rendered for the sum of $500 be found in his favor.

Girl Dies Under Wheels of Truck

Gertrude Steinberg, 10 years of age of 1139 West Thirty-first street, was killed almost instantly yesterday afternoon when a bicycle on which she was riding was struck by a lumber truck driven by James A. Baker of 1128 East Fifty-second street at the intersection of Budlong street and Florence avenue.

Officers Wilson and Simms took Baker into custody pending a thorough inquiry. The driver is said to have declared the accident was unavoidable, as the child rode into the path of his machine in such a manner that he was unable to see her approach.

NEW FALL FASHIONS DISPLAYED

Revolutionary Modes in Both Line and Material Attract Shoppers

BY OLIVE GRAY

Although no formal fashion show designated the autumn openings, Los Angeles stores this season have fixed upon a date of declaration that merchandise stocks are in readiness for the buying public. Yesterday was characterized by excellent window displays in the leading stores and shops and several special sales, with tempting offerings, were the objective of the shopping throngs downtown.

Many of the larger stores, sending buyers to every leading center of trade both in Europe and America, have surprises in the way of modes quite revolutionary in line and material, while the specialty shops vie with each other in novelties both in garments and in those accessories which make for good attire. Materials are more than ever sumptuous, while prices are attractively lowered.

Despite the fact that some creators of feminine habiliments endeavor to inculcate extreme features, the modes, as a whole, are practical, wearable and attractive. The range of fabrics, the variety in silhouettes, the breadth of choice in millinery, provide such latitude that every woman may exercise her individual taste and still be well dressed.

Autumn is becoming known as a style center, and for this reason makers everywhere take into consideration in their designing the patrons here, who are known to exact the best in every line of couture. Openings here are earlier than in eastern cities, and thus much of the merchandise displayed here is as yet unknown elsewhere.

NEW TRIAL FOR BISBEE DECIDED

Convicted in Knapp Case and Verdict Quashed

District Attorney Halts Appeal Notice

Agreement Clears Issue; Date Set Tuesday

J. Frank Bisbee, bail bondsman convicted of a charge of aiding in the escape of Paul Knapp, confessed desperado and bandit, will be given a new trial, it was agreed yesterday by the District Attorney's office and Judge Aggeler of Superior Court.

Bisbee, Mrs. L. W. Murray and Mrs. Josephine Knapp were convicted last week in Judge Aggeler's court of assisting Knapp to escape from a deputy sheriff by dropping through a trapdoor in his home while the deputy waited outside presumably to take him to the office of a dentist. Knapp later was re-arrested and is now under sentence to Folsom of from sixteen years to life.

Bisbee was made a codefendant in the escape case on the theory that he was involved in the asserted plot by obtaining a court order for Knapp's release from the County Jail. Attorneys for Knapp argued, however, that it's mere obtaining of the order did not legally involve Bisbee in the asserted escape, and Judge Aggeler accordingly recommended that the jury bring in a verdict acquitting Bisbee but in spite of the court's suggestion the jury found Bisbee guilty.

Last Tuesday, Judge Aggeler granted a motion setting aside the verdict to guilty in so far as it applied to Bisbee, and the District Attorney's office then announced an appeal would be taken. Yesterday the issue was cleared when it was stated the District Attorney's office will withdraw its appeal and consent to a retrial of Bisbee on the charge.

Judge Aggeler will fix the date for the new trial at a hearing Tuesday.

Officer Describes Discovery of Councilman in Room With Grimes Woman

BEAGLE STREET RAID RECOUNTED

Jacobson's Plot to Protest to Webster Described

Judge Insists That Case be Tried on Facts

Attorney Asserts Accused to Tell Own Story

ted on the grounds even though he did this thing, he did it in a place where the law did not prohibit it, and I am a judge who believes that in administering justice all parties should be considered, and that in ruling on motions and objections the ultimate and that the judge should obtain is that of rendering exact and proper justice even though it is required to strain a technicality.

The court added: "And furthermore, I do not believe the court would be justified, unless compelled, to make a ruling in this case that would prevent the defendant and the people from having the essence of the crime here charged tried by a jury and determined."

WALLS ON STAND

Capt. Walls, then on the stand, began the story of what occurred on Beagle street the night of the raid. He said he was in his office at Central police headquarters and an anonymous telephone call from one who described himself as an attorney advised that a woman named Grimes was in a room at the Grimes house, where a 9-year-old girl was a resident.

The attorney, he said, demanded immediate action on the threat that unless a raid was conducted, he would take the matter higher. Walls said he told the person he would attend to the investigation at once.

Capt. Walls said that before he received the anonymous call he had advised Al Nathan, a newspaper man, to come to his office for a friendly chat. Later Walls said Captain of Detectives Williams and Detective Lieutenant Lucas came in and he told them of the call. In the absence of other men they said they would assist in the investigation.

MAN ENTERS HOUSE

Nathan arrived at the station later on and sending a news story asked to accompany the officials. Later, Detective Raymond arrived and all got in automobiles and went to the Beagle-street address, Walls said.

After arrival there, Walls said they observed a man come up in an automobile, leave it and go into the house. They went around to a window where a blind was up about six inches.

"Where did you first see the defendant, Mr. Jacobson?" Prosecutor Connon asked.

"We first saw him sitting in the room on a cot," Walls testified, with his arm about a woman. Presently she got up and went over to a piano and began playing. The defendant arose from his seat and sat down beside her, where he began conversing with her.

"After she got through playing the piano she went into what I later learned to be a bedroom and the lights went out."

BEDROOM ENTERED

"We went in through a kitchen door, into the bedroom, where I saw Councilman Jacobson," Walls said.

"What did he say?" Connon asked.

"He said: 'You know who I am, boys,'" Walls testified.

"Lucas said: 'I don't know who you are, sit down.' The defendant sat down on the bed."

According to Walls, Councilman Jacobson said again: "You know who I am."

Here it was, Walls asserted, that Councilman Jacobson asked Detective Lieutenant Lucas for his gun and said: "Give me that gun."

"I'll put a bullet through my brain," Walls testified, "if Jacobson doesn't give me the gun."

Walls further testified that the Councilman told him to go to Mrs. Grimes' place to "access her property."

TRAP CHARGED

The witness then related how Councilman Jacobson asked to see Police Commissioner Webster, to whom Walls declared he later said:

"There's been a trap laid for me and I fell into it."

According to the testimony, efforts were made to get in touch with City Prosecutor Lickley, Deputies Connon and Krowl and Chief Deputy District Attorney Davis to take a statement. Dist. Atty. Keyes finally was found, Walls said and questioned Councilman Jacobson.

Defense Attorney Anderson took the witness on cross-examination and Capt. Walls was under a steady fire of questions relating to the identification of Councilman Jacobson and the organization of the raiding party, when court adjourned.

The hearing adjourned until next Monday, because today is a holiday. Attorney Anderson said he will be at least two days more cross-examining Capt. Walls, and at the end of the trial will ask the court for an instructed verdict of acquittal based on the motion already argued.

WIFE AT HIS SIDE

Throughout the court session yesterday Councilman Jacobson and Mrs. Jacobson sat side by side within the courtroom railings. As Capt. Walls related the story of the Beagle-street raid the Councilman sat apparently unmoved emotionally.

Shortly after the police officer began his story, Jacobson took out a notebook and pencil and made notes occasionally. His wife sat forward, her chin resting on her hand. When Capt. Walls told of looking through the window and seeing a man in the living-room putting his arms around Mrs. Grimes, Mrs. Jacobson quickly leaned over and whispered to her husband. He shook his head as if replying, "No."

Frequently during the testimony of Capt. Walls, Mrs. Jacobson smiled and laughed slightly. For the most part she kept her eyes on the man in the witness chair.

CLASH OF COUNSEL

The morning session of court was consumed with the selection of jurors. The prosecution exhausted their ten allotted peremptory challenges while the defense was satisfied with nine.

The session before testimony began was marked by only one outstanding clash of the contending counsel. That came during the examination of Mrs. Nordberg, who admitted that she read first accounts of the Jacobson-Beagle street affair in the newspaper but admitted she had changed her opinion after hearing statements

GRIMES GROCER SUES FOR BILL

Woman in Jacobson Trial Receives Visit from Process Server

While Mrs. Callie Grimes was seated in the witness room of Municipal Judge Willis's court, where the Jacobson trial was proceeding yesterday, a process server apprised her of action filed by her grocer seeking $101 as a back grocery bill.

The suit was filed in the Municipal Court by Attorney George Stoddard for James De Hollander and Charles Baughman, who conduct a grocery store at 2024 North Broadway. Mrs. Grimes and her husband, Victor, were made defendants in the action. The grocery bill is asserted due from January 1, last, to the present date.

made by Chief Defense Counsel Hilton in the examination of other prospective jurors.

The defense passed Mrs. Nordberg for cause with little examination. Deputy City Prosecutor Barnes endeavored to prevent the jury from prospect what had caused her to change her mind and asked if Attorney Nordberg had any hypotheses.

Question of Wednesday was the cause. That question directly charged Jacobson was the victim of a frame-up.

JUROR RETAINED

Attorney Hilton leaped to his feet with a bitter objection. The court temporarily sustained him. Prosecutor Barnes was equally heated in his own defense and won the point when questioning was resumed and Mrs. Nordberg admitted that she changed her mind as Jacobson's guilt or innocence after hearing Hilton's hypothetical question propounded. She remained on the panel, however.

Reports of a rift between members of the defense counsel over Councilman Jacobson taking the witness stand in his defense were emphatically denied by Chief Defense Attorney Hilton. He declared the matter has been agreed upon perfectly that the Councilman will take the stand at the proper time.

"His story is true," Attorney Hilton declared. "And as such, it is a duty he owes the public to tell it from the witness stand. He has insisted that he be permitted to testify and so he shall."

Nothing could be worth less than an expired rent receipt — yet thousands of families accumulate them all through life. A little foresight now, and the ending will be happier — for it is possible to buy a home of your own on terms practically the equivalent of rent.
